HOURS:

Tuesday through Saturday: 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Sunday: Noon-4 p.m.

Open Mondays for special tours

EXHIBITS:

Bask in the architectural beauty of this gothic castle overlooking the Mississippi River before visiting the many exhibits focusing on Louisiana's vibrant political past. See Huey come "alive" as he shares his contributions to our state, and then investigate the mystery surrounding his death. Sit back, enjoy and experience a piece of our history as you watch our latest high-definition production. Become involved and participate in our award winning "We the People..." interactive exhibit emphasizing the importance of becoming an informed and involved citizen while also understanding the privilege of the vote. Visit the "Statehouses of Louisiana" and record a bit of your own history before continuing on to more new and exciting discoveries.

MUSEUM STORE:

You will not want to miss this unique shopping experience. Housed in the 1882 Secretary of State's Office, the Old State Capitol Museum Store specializes in books by and about Louisianians and carries a huge collection of local cookbooks, prints, ornaments, jewelry, t-shirts, music, videos, postcards and so much more.

SPECIAL EVENTS:

The magnificent Rotunda and Senate Chamber are available for after-hours rentals, receptions and special events. Elegant conference/public meeting rooms may be used for smaller meetings and gatherings during the day, as well as for conferences and lectures. The beautiful five-acre grounds are ideal for outdoor functions such as concerts and picnics.
